

LEVERAGE

Balance, rhythm

While the adult is standing, the child positions their feet on those of the adult's. The adult holds on to the child's shoulders or hands to maintain the position. The adult starts to walk, and the child is taken along, staying on top of the adult's feet. This can also be done with the child facing the adult.

